

Greater Farallones National Marine Sanctuary & the San Francisco Zoo Present:

SEA OTTER SOIRÉE

Why We Need Sea Otters More Than
They Need Us

Saturday, April 2nd, 2016, 7-9:30 pm

San Francisco Zoo, 2945 Sloat Blvd., San Francisco 94132

Join us for a sophisticated mingling of science and art highlighting one of our coast's most charismatic species. This intriguing and thought-provoking presentation by sea otter biologist Tim Tinker, Ph. D. of the U.S. Geological Survey demonstrates how sea otters can help restore the health of nearshore ecosystems, often in unexpected ways.
