Tracking Tunas & Sharks Across the Great Pacific

Saturday, November 14th, 2015 7:30-9:30 pm

Jewish Community Center of San Francisco
3200 California Street at Presidio Avenue

Stanford University Expert Dr. Barbara Block will present her latest cutting-edge research in an 8:30 pm lecture: “Sushi & Satellites: Saving Our Blue Serengeti by Tracking Giant Tunas and White Sharks.” By outfitting them with tracking tags, Dr. Block has collected unprecedented amounts of data about these fierce and swift — but imperiled — predators and their deep ocean habitats. Dr. Block is a TED speaker and recipient of a MacArthur Foundation “Genius” Award.
