

SANCTUARY EXPLORATIONS

PLAYA PAINTINGS WORKSHOP WITH ANDRES AMADOR

Saturday, November 7th 2015 12:00pm-2:30pm

Join Andres Amador and Greater Farallones sanctuary naturalists for an exciting beach art workshop. We will begin with a talk about crop circles, geometry, fractals, chaos and how these influence and inspire Andres and his work. After a demonstration of techniques, we'll have a chance to play with the rakes and participate in practical group exercises. We'll decide on a design for the day and get to work making our own amazing group playa painting! Moderate physical condition is needed both for raking and for getting to and from the beach location.
